POP

I see the outline of, I see a white horse in Space, with a rider, the rider was dressed in all white as well, the horse may have been a unicorn, there were no wings on the horse, it was as if it was galloping through Space,

I am Space, I see a swirling mass, almost appeared as universe, then became..., then showed itself having a whirlpool-like funnel underneath of it of clear

Back in Space, I see the rider and the horse again, the horse disappears, the rider is still there, but wearing black and then he disappears into the starry skies of Space, the Earth was below us

I am skimming along something and crash through it, it appears to be a large tube of water coming at me, then pushing me backwards down the tube, there is a large fan in the tube that is opening and closing like a door, as it opened up, I moved out, back to Space, There is something swirling or spiraling, it is long and has many appendages, almost like arms of a millipede, but they are floating around against the body

I see a hand, coming at me, holding something, I look down and it may actually be my own hand,

It is the black of night and I look up and there is something above me with possibly a figure or two on it, that floated upwards,

POP, POP, show me your visions....

I am in Space, there is a tube-like object, with glass in the middle, I am above something, I am spinning, it is above me, then to the left, I am looking at a tube or something

POP, show me your visions, bring forth your guardians, POP...

I see a pedestal, it is white, the pedestal becomes, or the pedestal behind it come a rock bridge that leads to a castle, it appears to be a conveyer belt below me, and there is incredibly large insect coming down conveyor belts, apparently not alive

POP, show yourself...

I see a figure in a tuxedo with a head of an alligator. It turns into the head of a pterodactyl or dinosaur

I am looking out into Space, I see a hand before me that may be my own, it is browned with age and is clutching something, it was clutching (something) then let go, it was a ball shape and it fell off back into Space

POP, I am in the 19 Aethyr of POP, show me your visions, allow me entrance, for I am DD and I am God, you will do as I say

I am looking sideways at a huge building, as I flip around the building, the building is above me (then) in front of me

I walk through a short room, on each side is stair stepped seating with small furry animals in it, I see a figure going through two doors that shut in the middle, and is pushed through by these furry figures, I open the door and find a man, apparently climbing

What is your name, sir? What is your name here, sir?

Is your name El-eN? (LN)

“Yes”

What are your attributes in this 19th Aethyr of POP?

“I carry on the work”

What is this work that you carry on with?

“It is the work of the Ages”

And please, tell me in simple terms that I might understand, what is this work of the Ages?

“It is the climbing of man”

“It is the spiritual growth”

What is your role in the spiritual growth of man?

Speak clearly that I might hear you properly

“I carry the road” at first I thought he said “I carry the load”

What is this road that you carry for man, that assists him on his path?

“I carry the Ra-Ode of happiness”

What is the Ra-Ode of happiness? Please be specific and speak clearly that I might understand you

“The Ra-Ode is the memory of the Way”

So, you carry the memory of the Way for men and assist men with this memory of the Way?

“Yes”

Very good, and why to you climb within this space, why do you climb upwards?

“To carry the Ra-Ode”

Do you have any words of wisdom for me, as I travel in this 19th Aethyr of POP?

“Yes”

“Carry not the Ra-Ode of others”

“Carry only your own way”

“Others, are not the way for you”

“You must carry your own Ra-Ode”

“And now be off”

Thank you for your time, El-eN

Are there any visions within this Aethyr, that you think I should see, that would benefit me?

“Yes”

Please take me to those visions at this time and show me

I am flying past an object, I appear to be in Space again, the object was square and rectangular and almost looked like a bathtub insert, I see what looked like a ship with a serpents head, that may have actually been a serpent, a dragon, I see it fly away as its tail moves up and down

There appears another creature, merely ahead, followed by flowing feathers or light flowing behind it, almost as if it is a Chinese parade dragon,

What is your name?

I am not told a name, but I have a vision of the close up of the front of this beast, it has the head of a dragon that is glowing and almost translucent, I see its body reeling behind it

What is your name Dragon?

Please speak clearly that I might understand you properly

He does not speak clearly, he makes a sound, almost like the sound of “A-Weep”

Almost sounds like that of a whale

Very well then Dragon, be on your way

I saw a foot, of the like a dragon that came, upon a statue of a man-like form, I then saw the guardian Chinese dog statue, off to my left, I can see a row of mounds, each one, on top has a little round door that opens up, maybe on the rooftop of buildings, the round opening may be the exhaust for fires (chimney) I see a large, brown rock outcropping along the left hand side, along side it was a rode, a dirt road or pathway, as I floated back, I saw that there was a river beneath the cliff-way, and a tree line separating the river from the road, and trees on the other side of the road, I am now on the road, the trees have overgrown and covered the top, almost as in a tunnel, the end of the tunnel turn into hands, as the hands pull apart, I am now down another pathway, on either side are stone walls, natural walls, about 8 feet tall,

Before me is an image of a knight, with a glowing sword in front of him, its almost as if his body is emanating light as well,

What is your name, sir knight?

Is your name Sar

“Yes”

Sir knight Sar, what is your purpose and attributes here in this 19th Aethyr of POP?

What is your duty and service?

“I am of the one that carries forth the service of ..”

Please speak clearly that I might hear you

“...the service of man’s demise”

And by what means do you carry out this service, the service of man’s demise?

“I am the one who carries it out”

What other attributes do you have here within this Aethyr?

“I carry the Sword of Light”

This Sword of Light, what are the attributes that it has?

“It is of the nature”

It is of the nature of what, this Sword of Light?

“It is of the nature of man”

What other attributes does this Sword of Light have? You have told me its nature, but what is its purpose?

“It is designed to carry the flame”

And what flame is it designed to carry?

“It carries the flame of light”

Great, and for what purpose do you use this Sword of Light?

“It is the way that I served man”

So, you use this sword to service man to his demise?

“Yes”

Is it all man that you service to their demise, or is it just a few

“It is all but a few”

And those few that you do not service, why are they allowed...to not be serviced to their demise?

“They are of sufficient light”

Do you provide this service to all men that meet you here in this Aethyr, besides those few?

“No”

“Only those that need the demise”

So those men that need to demise, there are few of those that you allow to pass?

“Yes”

I have come before you. Will you allow me to pass?

He does not answer

Answer, that I might hear you properly. Will you allow me to pass within this Aethyr?

“Yes”

I see an image of a turkey, feathers out, it is more like a round of feathers with a turkey head and neck sticking out

Thank you sir knight, I shall pass.

I am back in Space, I see an image of what looked like a metal satellite dish, it began to spin, and almost came into the appearance (of being) a blender, I am now seeing what looks like a plate with a swirl design on it, it has now become a swirling vortex in Space I am above the Earth, going through its upper stratosphere, actually I am traveling, I am looking back as I travel, across that stratosphere, it looks like I am leaving a trail of mist, I see the shoulder of a man, wearing a shirt with a vest,

What is your name? Speak so that I might clearly hear you.

He says his name is “T--aR”

I do not recognize you as T--R <my HGA>. Tell me your name.

“Oh yeah” (he says ) with a smile

Tell me your name and what is your purpose here?

“I am here to test”

And what are you here to test for?

“The might of man and his pomp”

What other attributes do you have here within this Aethyr?

“I am the seed of deceit that grows in man’s heart”

I saw an image of a waterfall, looked like a seed going down reaching out of it was like a large finger, now I see a hand pulling like a lever, actually turning a large post that has two outcroppings, grasping those and turning those, in a counter-clockwise position.

I am back out in Space again, I saw an image floating by, and it almost looked like it had a large building (on it), if you would, shaped in the letter “H”, it had large plants around it filling in the space,

I saw a woman that turned into a statue then into a man that slid onto a throne, he had a red beard, and now I see a picture of an older man with a white beard, I am now down in a trench, the sides of the trench are lined with light brown balls, there was a doorway, but it went off (moved away) further down, I am now seeing possibly another Dragon that was invisible as it approached and was almost in the shape of a caterpillar or a worm, and then became visible and turned, then took the appearance of a T-Rex that flew through Space, I am seeing images of different dinosaurs

At this time, I will call forth my self back into my body

And I am back
