ASP, ASP, ASP...

I see an eyeball, it blinks, it has a second eyelids, (I am) backing away, it is an eyeball of an alligator, I see a head of an alligator, in running water, it is night time

There are pools of water along the edge of the river, almost as if they are dug around, little pools of water probably 12 feet across,

I am in a tube (with water), there is light reflecting off the water onto the roof (of the tube), I am in a cavern with a couple of pools of water, one nearest me becomes a whirlpool, and I go down (it). I am going down another tube, with water on the bottom, I just went underneath it to a different cavern, this one has a larger river running through a larger tube. The water is actually running up, to around..., the water appears to be running up and down to this round opening, there is an eye, I see (from the back of the eye) the retinal cord on the back, I am seeing the round eyeball,

I am back in an organic cave again, I tried to push my way through the eye but that did not work, I see two round outlets (in the organic tube), I am going to go down one, the right side, I see a rock structure,

ASP, ASP, ASP...

I am looking down at what appears to be a crow's head, way down below it is a river that splits into two sections,

I am now floating in Space again, there is some type of mist, there is something (ahead of me) in Space that is indescribable, organic, but looks possibly like a space ship, kind of, the back is open,

I (now) see dark water, something swimming through it, away from me,

There we go, I find myself back in the (organic) chamber with the water running up and down the large opening, I actually went through (the opening) and it was a large eye that was blinking as I went through,

The Earth appears below, as I am in the stratosphere, again, something flies by me through space, something organic in nature, there are two small creatures on top of it running back toward me, they are gone now,

ASP...

I see a room, that has rows of pillars on each side, as I walk down a hallway, there is a door, with a square top, there is a rock wall surrounding it, it is wooden door, the door actually opens up toward me, I opened it and I appear to be back in a rocky tube, with a stream running through it.

ASP...

I am in Space and there is a comet racing away from me, there are round ripples (or waves) coming at me as if something exploded in the distance.

I am looking at a mast, like on a ship, an old sailing ship, the ship is going upstream, in a river, there is a man standing on the deck.

What is your name? Please speak clearly that I might hear you. What is your name, please?

Is your name Or-Tor-Ka-Ga

“Yes”

What is your purpose here, on this boat flowing up the river, in this 21st Aethyr of ASP?

“It is my will to follow the river to its beginning”

For what purpose will this achieve? Why do you desire to seek the beginning of the river?

“It is where all begins”

And what, do you know, is the name of this river?

“The river is of De-Sy-Ra”

Is this the river of desire?

“Yes”

Do you have any words of wisdom in this 21st Aethyr of ASP, that you could give me?

“Know that to flow on the river is easy”

“That you ride the waves and accomplish, is not” <you accomplish nothing by riding the waves>

“The river is meant to be driven”

“You must follow you own way down the river”

“Chose your path that will best serve those needs that cannot be met otherwise”

“Wherever you are, there is the river”

“You must be in control”

Thank you for your words of wisdom.

Is there anything within this 21st Aethyr of ASP that you wish for me to see, that might be fulfilling for me? If so please take me there.

I see a large stone, it has three large flat loafs of bread on it, they (now) almost look like they are on a grated conveyor belt, they don't really seem to move, but the conveyor belt is moving (underneath them) There is a liquid running down the center of the belt and dripping off the end, I see the form of a woman within the liquid, the liquid drops into a large wooden bucket, below the form of the woman, stands between the edge of the conveyor belts, and the black liquid

I see the image of a black bird, almost crow like, but it has a very flat, pronounced head I am back in space, something just passed to my right, a rather large ship like object, organic texture to it,

I see a mask coming at me, hallow eyes, and a grated mouth, flying through space at me. I am in between two forces, the top one going to the right, the bottom one going to the left, I am still in Space

I am at a point of Space that is being pulled by both forces, (it is like) two funnels of energy, one on top of the other, spinning in two different directions, I am (now) on the outside, looking at these two funnels of energy, spinning in opposite directions, on top of on another. I am now floating upside down in Space, there is something above me floating through Space as well, it is large, rather organic, it has layers of plates down the side, I am in one of those now, I float back out, and now I am back in, smooth black floor, (it) goes with the black upon the walls about two feet, and then there is a dark black and brown texture to it, there are pillars about every 10 feet,

Now (I'm in a) section with the same black floors, the walls are now round in shape, coming up and over me, and are white, there is an orifice in front of me and an animal came out of it, it looked like a dolphin, almost as if in birth, I see a doorway or archway that is pointed on top, inside (there is a) hallway (that the ceiling) is pointed as well, there was a skeleton in front of it (the door) I appear to going down it (the hallway) the walls were dark in color, the ground was a light color,

I saw another image, floating through space, flying by me, it had a round dome on it where fire-like energy was shooting out of it, and it has since flown away, I am being pulled somewhere possibly, kind of like a wormhole, but slightly different feel to it.

I saw a soldier in armor, futuristic, almost robotic like,

I am back in space and I see something whirling off to my right, I think it is another large funnel, that (funnel) disappears, and there is another funnel forming off to the left, and now the funnel is back on the right side (only), it appears to be a flow of energy, almost like a road, it is green in color, not solid, kind of gaseous, but it is flowing between the two funnels, the funnels do not appear at the same time,

And there is yet again, another large organic thing flying in front of me, I saw open up, circular in design, almost like the same visions of the fabric of Space (from a previous Aethyr working), when it opened up, I was taken to the top of a mountain, the fabric that time was whitish in color, the mountain top is like a volcano, I saw an image of , like lava coming out, then it changed into a large tongue, the top of the mountain melted down and

I saw a black face over it, sticking its tongue out at me, I see a crypt, round on each edge, like a cradle, a doll within it, I am (now) flying backwards, away from it

ASP, ASP...

I see an image that started out almost as a man's face but turned into a heart shape, this is all Space, Again something flies by, this one a little bit smaller, I see a planet below me, half of it is in shadow, I'm only seeing the half that's in light, it turns and rotates and the clouds thereof,

I see a black throne, somebody sitting on it, I see their arms, but not their head, black coat, long kind of curly beard

What is your name? Speak so that I might hear you clearly, what is your name?

"I am of the Ayr"

Are you a part of the 21st Ayr of ASP?

"Yes"

You are on a throne, are you a king of this realm, of part of this realm?

He answered with a very short "Yes", it sounded like he was reluctant to answer

If you be a king of this realm, what are you king of?

"I am king of all those that are not of the Ayr"

You said that you were of the Ayr, yet you are king of those that are not of the Ayr, how is that possible?

"I convey to them my words and they obey"

And of those that are not of your realm, that which you control, where are they from? Are they from the Earthly realm? Or of another?

"They are from the Earthly realm"

And how do you make contact with these, that are of a different realm, so that you may give them your words?

"I enter those realms through the power of control"

What is this power of control that you speak of?

He simply replies "It is"

Please respond to my question, What is this power of control that you have that allows you to enter the Earthly realm?

"It is the way of the cornucopia"

Are you referring to the spiraling energy vortexes, that I saw in an earlier vision?

"Yes"

You are able to traverse through those, to the Earthly domain?

"Yes"

What is your name here in the Aethyr? What name do men know you by?

"My name is Art-Too-La-Mow"

Your name is Art-Too-La-Mow? Is that the correct way to say your name?

"Yes"

And this is the name that the men of the Earthly realm know you by?

"Yes"

Are there other names that the men of the Earthly realm know you by?

"Yes"

What is the next most common name that men of the Earthly realm know you by?

"It is Ah-Nos"

What is the meaning of the name Ah-Nos?”

“It means the day of life”

And the other name that you gave me, what is the meaning of that name?

“It is the name of those that follow”

So, that name simply describes those that follow you?

And what attributes do you have, what powers do you have that men of the Earthly realm would follow you?

“I know the power of all men’s hearts”

So, are you saying that you have the power of emotion, when it comes to Earthly men?

“Yes”

Do you have any words of wisdom within this 21st Aethyr of ASP, that you would like to give me, and bestow upon me?

“Yes”

Speak them now

“Know what you desire”

“Know what others desire, so that you can control the pathway”

“Make not friends or enemies of desire”

“You are not at play”

“You are not alone”

Thank you for your time and your words of wisdom, is there anything within this 21st Aethyr of ASP, that you think that I might see, that might benefit me?

“Yes”

Please show me at this time what you would like me to see

(I am in) Space, the Earth is above me to my left, as more things fly by me, I am now looking down upon the Earth, at a bay..., what appeared to be the Earth, was the front of one these flying, large, large, flying objects going through Space and past me.

I am now seeing a transparent, energy like object, with a round opening, and flowing out of it is energy, almost as if it is water, flowing out of a round facet, on the side of something.

I see a figure, transparent, possible riding a horse, his body appears transparent, he has a helmet on, but his eyes are not transparent

What is your name?

No answer

I saw visions of a doorway, almost shaped like the figure eight, it lead through a wall, almost appeared as a keyhole type of imagery, and then changed into that (figure eight shape)

I am back out in Space, (there is) gaseous energy flowing around me, it is coming from my right side and back behind me

There is another large creature, mouth open, almost alligator like, in Space, it does not appear to have legs, I am able to look down its throat, which is completely opened up, all the way down its back,

ASP, ASP...

I am up and looking over a ridge, it’s a flat land with bushes, I am floating above it, This time the images are not making themselves clear, in a clear direction,

I am seeing pyramid-like structures next to the water as the ocean waves come up and wash against the walls of it, the bases are buried in sand,
I am floating upside down and spinning, there is a large structure in front of me that goes up, there is a rather large window above me, it is almost like a large cathedral (window)
There is a man, standing in front of a Space-like scene, he has a suit that matches the Space-like (scene) that makes him near invisible, he zips it down from his head, the top of his head

I am getting a lot of motion within this...

I am back out in Space, looking at more energy, as it rushes off, and now rushes down low on me,

At this time I wish to end this vision and come back into my body

I see more visions of water, like an ocean, washing upon a jagged rock outcropping

And I am back in my body
