Call of the Aethyr – VTI

VTI, VTI, VTI

I saw a rock with an outline of a cross on it

I am now looking at water rushing over a waterfall, down below is darkness

It looks like it is a still pool of blackened water, blackened, shaded water

It has changed into a tube with water going down it, I am flying above it

The tube of water seems to be going up, I can see out (an opening)

I am going back down a tube, there is another opening

I sliced open the seal and came through an eye.

I got the impression that it was a lizard, but now am getting the impressions of a crow

It turned into a wolf, I seem to be spinning in a whirlpool, I am going back down a tube with water, the water is swirling on all sides

I seem to be in a pool of water, right near the surface

I am under the water, it is swirling, there is a platform under the water (that is) swirling beneath it. On the platform is a statue or figure,

It is as if the statue is carved into the stone, so that it comes out of the stone on one side, on the back, there appears to be two or three round circles connected together,

There seems to be a swirling mass going up (the back side), almost to the effect of gears connecting (and turning together)

The front swings around again, there now appears a throne with an old man (sitting in it), long hair, long white beard, he has a crown on (his head), with possibly a snake coming out of the front (of the crown)

Who are you? Tell me your name

“I am Tel-Nar....”

Please speak your name again so that I might hear it clearly

Tel-Sar-Na-Ori-Be-Ute, is that your name?

“Yes”

Oh great King, in the water above this whirl-pool, what attributes do you have in the 25th Aethyr of VTI?

“I am here to keepeth the way”

What is the way that your keep?

“I keep the way to the underbelly of the pinnings”

What underbelly of the pinnings? Could you clarify the way that you keep?

“I keep those that do not below away from those that do”

Are there any other attributes that you have here in this Aethyr?

“I see those along that do not belong”

And where do you see those that do not belong too?

“I see them to their end, they perish”

Oh great King, is there anything within the Aethyr that you feel I should see?

“Yes”

Please, oh great King, take me there and show me

I see an eye that has like a crystal tower coming out of it

I am seeing something....,

Now appears flowing water, there are trees on either side that are tall, I am floating above them, the trees appear to have lost their leaves and are gray in color

Now I am looking over a field of wheat, everything is also light brown, as in Autumn

I am looking at a rock statue that has a head of a snake or dragon on it, it is more of a dragon now

I appear to be at the bottom of the statue as I look up, there are sections of the statue that spin, they spin in different directions, that statue goes up beyond sight into darkness, some of the sections are probably three to four feet tall.

Looking up near the top, there appears to be, a statue or like a small child hanging upside down with his arms outstretched, but his head, with his stomach to the wall, but his head is looking up

What is your name?

“I am the one that came before and the one who will come last”

What is your name?

Say it so that I might hear it clearly. What is your name?

Is your name Orisin-Tay

“Yes”

What attributes do you have here in the 25th Aethyr of VTI?

“I am the seer of things to come and the knower of all eternity”

What other attributes do you have here in this Aethyr?

“I am the watcher of the worlds”

Does this statue, that towers above me and goes up unseen, does it represent the worlds?

“Yes”

When you say worlds, does that represent the Aethyrs, as I know it?

“Yes, and there is more”

As the watcher of the Aethyrs, what are you watching for?

What do you see? Why are you the watcher?

“I see all that happens in the Aethyrs”

But why do you watch?

Speak so that I might hear you clearly. Why do you watch?

“It is my way”

Very well then

Watcher do you have any words of wisdom you can bestow upon me?

Please speak clearly so that I might hear you

I seemed to have moved away from that space, from that place

I am looking around, I am in space

There appear to be rocks floating around, there is a large asteroid type structure that has a large building, temple, on it

It is rectangular in shape, and there is a smaller rectangular jutting out from one side, made of stone, surrounded by a wall,

I am floating above it, sideways, and upside down

The front door, appears to be somewhat like a castle, is open, there is light

I go..., I am looking at, the entry way is arched, and the main center stone (in the archway) is figured in such a way the there is a man's face looking down, at a 45 degree angle, upon those that enter

I have gone through it, it seems to be dark, there is an image of a golden statue, possibly a lady,

I come up to, like an intersection, there are four hallways (that form) an X, but I am not standing in the hallway, I am perhaps floating above looking down

The X somewhat becomes crystalline, All of it, itself,

I am back in space, through a mist I see a castle, with many round spires, towers going up,

Inside, I look up and there is a large, 8x8, wooden spool that goes up, with a gear above it, it goes up probably 12 to 14 feet

I look up and there is a small , pass under or through a doorway, it also is art, it has a rounded arch

I look up, it is a night sky with clouds, few stars speckled through it,

I appear to be floating up in the clouds, let's see if I can settle this down...

I see an eye of a black wolf, not quite a wolf, a bear's head with a wolf's snout and alligators teeth

I see a bed, it has ornate bed covering, blanket, on it

The bed is now green, there appears to be a person within it, laying on his side, his hands up, almost as they are in prayer, or if they are bound

What is your name?

The person has gray hair, older, possibly female

What is your name?

“I am she that rests”

What is your name? Please speak clearly so that I might hear you.

Tol por gi a a?

“Tal-Torgi-Ah-Ah”

What are your attributes here in this 25th Aethyr of VTI?

“I put to sleep those that need no awakening”

What do you mean by put to sleep?

“I put those to sleep that carry no soul”

Speak so that I might hear you clearly

“Those with no soul do not belong”

Are there any words of wisdom that you would have for me today?

“There are many that do not know the way”

“There are those that know not”

Speak clearly so that I might hear you

“You must find those that speak the names of the fathers”

“They will carry the weight of creation”

“They will know the tides to follow”

“I cannot know your way”

”They only know where to go”

Speak clearly so that I might hear you

“They keep within the route to understanding the ways of the Aethyrs”

And where are these Beings at? How would I find them?

“There is no way to find them, they find you”

How would I seek them, then?

“Know, Hear, and Listen”

What would I listen for? and what information should I know?

Speak so that I might clearly hear you

“Know that all things are the same”

“Listen for the sounds of the Universe as it flows”

“There is a Way, weaving through the cosmos”

“You must understand the way to hear the Universe”

Thank you for your words of wisdom, Is there anything within this 25th Aethyr of VTI that I should see or that you wish me to see? If so, please show me

I am on a hill, possibly like an old roman cemetery type setting, there is a building up top with large columns, and in the building, (I am) looking out, I see trees and forest that are green, there is one dead, snagged tree, there is one leaning over,

I look down and there is a mound of something, it almost resembled a Teepee, it is made of rock, it now appears to be a bottle, laying on its side with a rope wrapped around the whole, all of it,

I seem to disappear in an eye type of thing, when I pull back, I see the scales of possibly a dragon or a lizard,

I am back in space, looking up, there is a large dragon, I am looking up from underneath it as it stands on it's hind legs

I am floating upside down again, above me is water, and I am right side up, in the ocean with large wave going through it

I am (now) above it, there appears to be something moving through it, possibly like a submarine, there is a hatch, the top of this looked like a bug that was multi-sectioned, could be like an armored ship, and on the deck, there is a doorway, it looks like it would go down, but looks out upon space, empty space with stars shining through it, and I am back out into space

At this time, I will bring myself back into my body
I am back
