Call of the Aethyr – BAG

I see a large eye

It looks to me to be a dinosaur, a T-Rex

Looking through some branches now, out upon a valley

I am over a river (floating) and there are trees and brush on each side and everything is covered with snow, the river is white like ice

I look over the top of the trees and there is rushing clouds going fast across

I come upon a pile of rocks that has one large rock leaning against it

There is a hole within there (between the large rock and the pile of rocks)

There seems to be little spirit mists coming out of it, in and out, circling on (this) side

I am now within the rock enclosure looking out of a round hole with the spirit mists pushing me backwards through it.

Before, I could look through the hole, but now there seems to be no end (as I am pushed back)

I am pushed down backwards, deeper and deeper into the earth

The spirit mists are gone

I appear to be at a base of a mountain but it's in a cavern

There is a round tube emptying water into it

The water is just waving back and forth and I can feel my whole body floating in there,
(moving) up and down with the waves
I am above the water now and it is flowing down in a river
I step off the cliff and I am now in the water going down an organic tube.
It ends up in another cavern where there is a whirlpool
Again like before (other scrying sessions) I go down the whirlpool
There is an opening and I am urinated out.

I see a field of wheat at its harvest, so that it is golden,
There is a scarecrow or person off to the left hand side
I see images of a crucified man in a Christ like position

What is your name?

(again) What is your name?

There is no answer, it appears he might just be a (corpse)

What is your name?

There is no answer

I am walking through an area, the trees are green with life
There is a road or pathway (going) through it
There are bushes on each side that go up to about the waist
There is a hollow in a tree on the side of the mountain
I am now being sucked down a black tube, a little disorientating
I am now on a top of a mountain,
There is snow on top of (all) the trees and ground
I look down and I see is a white river
Off to the right there was a sword, but it seemed to fly away following the flow of the river

Now I am laying on my back looking up and there are two faces looking down (at me)
One is a man and the other one, a long bearded man

“We have trapped you”

perhaps the black tube (from the tree hollow) was their trap

What do you want of me?

“We want all”

You cannot have all for I am DD

I put on my robe and my belt (from previous Enochian scrying sessions)

I stand up

I am the Son of God, leave me be

They appear to be confused

“Go”

I am walking across a bridge over a river, a rope bridge with wooden planks on the bottom, and (the bridge is) covered
It ends at a cave, there is a (large) mouth opening and closing at the entrance to the cave
Up from the cave comes a cart, like on train tracks, it is full of undefined animals
They almost seem mechanical
I look up at the sun above the trees and I now appear to be under water
My body is flowing with the water, I look up and there is a bright light, light blue, above me

I look down, the side of the underwater cavern appears to be of crystalline structures, almost (looking like) a city (of buildings)
I now see a castle, a large courtyard, with towers on each corner
I am in front of a sitting room, where a bowl of food was just placed in front of a man, or a statue of a man
I see (within the bowl) eggs, that transform into mice, or gerbils
Let me see if I can get back to that man
I look down and see the back of a woman on her knees, she stands up
She has clothing (covering) her top, and she has clothing (leggings) on her legs, but her mid-section is naked

Who are you?

She turns around and looks at me
“I am one of the Seers”

What do you See?

“I see the future and the present”

What do you see of my present?

“There are few to believe (in you)”

“Never mind them, they don’t know”

And what would you have for my future?

“There are those that don’t see the ways (as) you do”

“It will be difficult to continue”

There is more of the message that I am not able to hear clearly

What is your name?

Sa-ha-zar-za, Is that your name?

Sa-ha-zar-a-ha-za, Is that your names?

“Yes”

Sahazarahaza, thank you for your time

As you can see the present is there any place in the Aethyr of BAG that I need to see?

“There is”

Show me, Take me there

I am flying over the edge of a river, there is a pool (of still water) in the river
There is a round descending cave that goes down in the water, above it is still (water)
I am now floating way above the Earth
I am now looking down on the top of a pyramid
The pyramid seems to crumble before me, what is left is a (large) round pot of ash
There are stairs upward that I am climbing
There is smoke coming from the edges of the stairs.
(The stairs lead up to) a platform
There is a rock with a (cut out) square in the center, with something in the middle
I can see (into) it and there are shelves (on each side) in it
I pass through the opening into the other side
There is a man that appears to be Native American,
(He) changed into a woman type form with a large beaked head and a long neck, dragon fly like wings

I look down and there is a book, (the color of the book) is dark, with a big round gold thing on it with a red ruby center

I open it up and there is another metal plate (page)

(In the metal page) inset in it (is something) that looks like a hook, wrapped in red and yellow striped clothe, perhaps it is part of (the hook, like a handle covering)?

So, the top cover that had the round gold thing with the ruby on top, is actually the pyramid that I was looking at before

I appear to be in that area again, there is a large green plush field, filled full of 3 or 4 thousand people (I am up on a ledge looking over the field)

There is a (man of royalty) on a lifted throne coming through the crowd

I appear to be near him

I look down and he has a thin gray beard, mustache, and a crown with something jutting out of the front (of the crown)

What is your name (king)?

“My name is Ear-tha-or-up-ee”

Is you name Ear-tha-or-up-ee?

“No”

Ear-tha-or-a-pee?

Ear-thor-or-a-pee? Is that your name?

“Yes”

Who is it that you command?

“I am King of all this area”

Great King, is there any words of wisdom that you can bestow upon me?

“Avoid temptation to desire”

“To desire what is un-rewarded (un-rewarding) is death”

“There is little that can be done for those that are undeserving”

“Know thyself or be doomed”

Thank you Great King

Might I ask what your attributes are Great King?

“I am the King of the East and West , or by west (East-West)”

“I am the giver of seed”

“The seed of man is my command”

Thank you O Great King,

I travel on this 28th Aethyr BAG, looking for visions, is there that here for which I should see, that you could direct me too?

“Yes”

Show me, Take me to this vision I must see

I am shown a woman in black dressed all the way up to her neck, with a black veil above her head, with a very white face

She lays her head on my lap She was carrying something

It appears to be a lantern with fire within it and fire surrounding it.

In the lantern appears a hand that pulls back a hood of a robe

Now it is just a figure in a (hooded) robe, The hood is completely dark inside and void of any light

Who are you? What is your name?

Speak so that I might hear you clearly

“I am of the Orizen” <oresa = darkness>

Are you of the Darkness?

“I am”

What is your purpose, here within this lantern, surrounded by fire?

“To keep the darkness within”

Is this lantern a trap or prison for you or are you here by (your) choice?

“The darkness must be kept from those within (the) flame, their hearts with desire”

Why is desire, against the darkness?

“Desire is the flame that lights the path of fulfillment”

“Fire ends that darkness of thought”

What is the purpose of the darkness?

“Darkness brings immortality”

“Darkness is the home of the Orizen”

What more could you tell me about the Darkness?

“Darkness protects those minds from desire”

“They that cannot desire do not die”

Is Darkness an agent of Death or Life?

“Darkness is that which keeps Life”

“Darkness cannot keep the flame of Desire within”

“Darkness is that which binds the mind”

“There is no Desire here”

In this 28th Aethyr of BAG, I have come for visions, Can you show me visions of this Aethyr that I need to see?

“No”

Very well then, I will leave you, and be on my way

I appear to going backwards, it is night-time,

I saw a large flight of stairs with stonework on each side

I have just come out of a mountain

Opening and closing behind me

It was actually the pyramid, I was within the pyramid, that was initially upon the book, with the metal covering, with the metal and ruby on top.

I see many images floating around

There is smoke above me swirling around

There are many mixed images now.

I am back over a creek, water flowing down over a large rock

There appears to be a large number of ceramic bottles (jugs) lined up next to it

There appears to be a table or maybe its part of a bottle that has a metal, wings flowing out, and in the center, with the imprint of wheat, in a circular pattern, much like the (old) Lincoln penny

I am seeing a pit of sand, surrounded by a rock castle,

Images appear to be fluttering by

At this time I will depart the 28th Aethyr of BAG and bring myself back into my body

Let those spirits that have visited me tonight, seen and unseen, leave and be gone, knowing that are friendship is thus, Please at this time, Leave.
