LIT, LIT, LIT, LIT, show me your visions...

I see an eye, the eye turns into a tunnel, the white part of the eye becomes the curved roof of the tunnel, the ground is flat, I go through the tunnel and it becomes more curved, the walkway becomes less wide, I am now looking up, or going up a narrow shaft, the walls are flat, it is a square shaft

I am looking at something..., I saw the tops of trees, looking like pine trees, up on a small hill was a tower, like from a castle, it had a mushroom-like pointed top, very phallic looking, I see a (faint) image of a person sitting in a chair, the chair is somewhat like a cushioned throne and possibly like an old style wheel-chair, the image of a man (sitting in the chair) fades in and out, he is of a yellowish-white light,

I saw an image of something very colorful, a lot of blue (tones), I would it imagine it as t6a large lunch box (sitting) on it's side, with two large hands that open it up, little creatures, possibly people, ran out as it opened up, and then it shut back up again

LIT, LIT, show me your visions, LIT...

I see what looks like a shadow of a man, but rather than it being dark, it is lit up

LIT, LIT...

(I am now) underwater, (there is a) fish-like creature swimming by with a rather long mouth, I come up above the water and there is what looks like a big pipe coming down to the waters edge and then bending, like a 110 degree angle, into the water,

<I realize that perhaps my previous visions were in black and white or the colors were dulled (or muted). I am now seeing parts of this vision with brilliant, brilliant colors of the blue sky>

I see a figure before me, it looks like a knight in armor, but the edges of his armor are lined with light

What is your name? Speak clearly that I might hear you.

“I am the knight of eternal darkness”

Yes, and what is your NAME?

“I am he that carries the light to the night”

What is your name?

“My name is Ah-Na...” <there is more>

Speak clearly, what is your name?

“Ah-Na-Ta-Sope-Ee-No”

Is that your complete name?

“Yes”

Ah-Na-Ta-Sope-Ee-No, what are your attributes here within this Aethyr?

“It is to carry the light to the darkness”

Do you have any other attributes here? Any tasks or duties?

“No”

Do you have any words of wisdom for me? Anything to communicate to me?

“You must know that the way is near”

“That the way is what you are here for”

“You must carry the light into the darkness of your world”

“The light is all that is, and is to come”

“There is no darkness that cannot be penetrated by the light”

<For you>“To know that all is the way that it should be”

“You are here to do your duty”

What is my duty?

<edited>

Do you have any other words of wisdom for me?

“Yes”

“Know that the Book of the Law will bear the light through the undertones of the writing”

“The Book is on the same path as the Way”

“The Book is close to the meaning of the Way”

Thank you for your time. Within this Aethyr, do you feel there are any visions that would benefit me?

“Yes”

Could you take me to them at this time?

“Yes”

I am seeing clouds, up in a dark sky, I now appear to be in Space, there appears a round disk of invisible energy that is pulsating from the center outward, I can see the stars behind it (through it) at the center, it is almost like a little black hole, <I feel somebody knocking at my skull>

What is your name? Show yourself.

I see an image of a darkened room and there is a doorway that is lit up, there is a person there, again I see the wheel chair (throne) and it spins around and there is what looks like a corpse of a man, dressed up in clothing from the 19th century, the image of the man shifts and changes

What is your name, sir?

Speak clearly that I might hear you. What is your name?

There is no answer

LIT, LIT, LIT, LIT, LIT, show me your visions...

I see a moon shaped figure, it is basically the moon with a face on it, crescent, it is in Space, the image is very, very flat, as if it is a drawing on paper, and now I see some land, outlined, there is a large, large star, possibly formed from ditches (trenches) dug around in the center (of the land),

The center had a bon fire or structure set up, I then had an image of another star, like a hexagram, made out of gold or brass, sitting upon a hilltop

I am (now) flying backwards along a mountain ridge, there is a flat pathway through it, along the pathway are stone pillars, (they are) rounded at the top, very phallic in shape, they are on both sides of the pathway now, the pathway has a slight hill that it goes up and comes down, in that area (on the hill) there was a patch of sunlight that opened up.

I am now floating up high, I floated around what appeared to be the edge of a mountain, of a rock face

I am now looking at a different mountain-scape, the mountain is curved, almost like the closed petals of a flower, on top of it appeared barren Space in the form of an "X", actually in more of a form of a cross, equal sided cross, where (the mountain top) was cleared, it was a little bit lighter (in color)

I am now seeing another wooden cross, with a man or (figure) crucified upon it, it looked more like artwork, and then the crucified man morphed into a skeleton and wisped away, I look at the (wooden) cross and it has become more ornate with intricate work of gold and silver, in the center was an oval mirror or oval disk,

Wow..., looking in that...., Looking in that mirror, it is more dome shaped, almost shaped like an eyeball, but it is definitely not an eyeball, the glass of the dome, you can look into and its kind of un-describable, just the energy emanating from it...., looking into it, I see clouds of energy floating around, and now the center of the cross has turned a darkened black, I saw the reflection of a man dressed in black, in the glass of it, and it has turned into an eye that is sideways,

I have moved away from there, I am floating around a rock cliff, actually it is right along the pathway through the mountains (that) I saw previously, as I was flying, I almost flew into what looks like a Budha statue carved into the rock, but it was actually very dark (in color), I am floating above the pathway now, that has now changed into a small stream, as I get down near the water, there appears a small waterfall, and there was a small basket moving across the waterfall, in front of it, almost as if it was on a rope being pulled across

LIT, LIT, show me your visions...

I am in Space, there was a large rock floating, on one side of it, it was flat and had a lot of relief carvings on it, it looked similar to Egyptian carvings, <I did not get a detailed look at it> I saw relief carving, that turned into like a stone carving or sculpture of a man, and that turned into a actual man walking down a corridor, he was followed by several others, (they were all) dressed similar, all walking in a line, I got an image that they were on the pathway from the mountains and then they hit a stretch (of the pathway) that went up, almost like an escalator,

There was like a dark shadow in front of me, fairly flat, two dimensional, almost in the shape of a human, (it had a) pointy head and then it just shrunk down upon itself and disappeared, and I was left, out in Space, looking at a solar system,

I am (now) looking at water at what first looked like an alligator and then became a woman, as her head slipped under the water, she was very dark, dark hair, dark skin, again I see an alligator-type thing come out of the water, a much shorter mouth and a higher forehead on it,

LIT, LIT, show me your visions...

I am flying over (a stream and traveling) up stream, over a river, it goes into a cave, it is hard to get into the cave, the cave changes into an eyeball, I go through the membrane of the eyeball, I am floating upside down, rotating around, I see a stream coming down a cavern, the water is gold in color, I float down to kind of a clearing, it is all rocky, rocks jutting up, in the center there is an alter, it looks like a rounded oval stone that has two more stones kind-of erect with arms around it, erect on each side, it has places that come out, about 80% up from the stone, I see a brief image of an umbrella, of a black umbrella, looking up from that, the sky becomes black, off of that and then it comes back down to that of a hair, as women's hair

What is your name?

<Whoa..., as I said that I saw bright light, glowing light>

What is your name? Speak clearly that I might hear you.

"I am she that blows in the wind"

She has a light airy voice

What is your name?

"Ah-Oon-Ta"

Ah-Oon-Ta, is that correct?

"Yes"

What are your attributes here within this Aethyr?

She has a light, happy (feeling) to her

"I am the light that has no meaning"

"I am the light that travels without course"

"I am the light that is of no consequence"

"I am the light that is free to be"

Since you are this light of no consequences, what do you choose to be?

She does not answer

Do you have any words of wisdom for me within this Aethyr? Anything to communicate?

“No”

Very well then, thank you for your time

LIT, LIT, LIT, show me your visions, LIT...

Again, I am seeing pillars, very phallic shaped, capped at the top, they seem to be pushing out from the ground, I am walking through something, or flowing through something, I have just gone through a cave entrance, or doorway, to a stone building, I see ahead of me a bird, it looks like a crow, (it looks) more like an image or a shadow up on the wall, that actually changed into an image of a penguin and then a duck, the penguin looked as if it was burrowing along the wall, the duck ended up like on water, it sort of turned into a swan, and now it is being pulled under the water, I am being pulled back, away, I appear to be up above an orchard, I am floating backward away from that, I am going forward again through a . . . , Oh, now I am being pulled backward, (I see a) square corridor, rectangular in shape, flat walls, flat ceiling

At this time I am going to bring myself back into my body.

I am back.

License to Depart
