Call of the Aethyr – ZIP

ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, ZIP...

I see what looks like a stairway coming down the side of a mountains, they came from the left to the center and then turned toward me and came down further, on the left hand side of these stairs is a dark, darkness, on the right side is the lushness of trees and bushes,

I am looking at an eye, coming our of it, the blackness of the eye was in the center and the whiteness of the eye was like...

Whoa...I just shot back through the eye, the black of the eye rose up at me, almost as if I was in a well and the white of the eye was the sides and I could see them moving into the center and all of a sudden the blackness of the center shot up at me

I saw a person sitting, but they did not appear to have a head, or the head was dark as the blackness of the space behind him, as to not be seen

Again, I see a duality (in my vision), on the left hand side is darkness, on the right light, there seems to be a figure standing halfway in between, and then I moved over into the dark side, and the figure seems to approach (toward me) a little bit and I moved back over to the light side,

I am now in the dark side that has the appearance of Space, more like the night sky that is slightly overcast so that the stars do not shine through, there was (what looked like) a ball of liquid attached to a flexible stand, large, and as it moved around, I could see into it and see the stars, into that great ball of liquid, probably six feet in diameter,

I now see a glass, it is as if someone put some liquid in it, but what I see in it is spinning, like a spinning mist I would say, it is more drier than a (watery) mist,

ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, show me your visions

Again, I am seeing directly in front of me, the left half being blackness and the right half being lightness, and it runs away from me, I move to the left hand side and it is the darkness of Space, a very starry night in there, and I move to the light (side) and..., it is almost as if the light (side) folded over onto the darkness and I now see the light, although, I am able to see the darkness pushing against the light, almost in a flowing pattern (like) water <lets see if I can settle down>

I see a large number of people, that may also be (made) of stones, coming up what appears to be an escalator, (they) appear to be somewhat in the darkness, coming up, I see the darkness of Space coming up and I almost sense some movement through it, and as part of that Space comes in front of an object, a light colored object, its as if you can't see through the Space, and that it is covering the object behind it

ZIP, ZIP, show me your visions

Again, I see the duality of darkness and light, the darkness on the left hand side and the lightness on the right, again..., Oh..., I moved to the right, as if the light folded on the left hand side (of the darkness), but then the darkness popped back up, it is almost as if it is a battle (between the dark side and the light side) pushing the barrier from a 90 degree angle to either side, the light or dark,

I see the eyes, like the green shiny eyes of a beast, that look like a wolf or a dog, turning into somewhat like a bear, (it) gives the appearance of growling,

I am moving through Space, there are several objects moving above me (at) about the same speed

ZIP, show me your visions! ZIP...

I see a walkway, as I walk through it there are walls on each that now go to darkness, the darkness invades, all right then...

Show yourself!

I see a figure of a woman taking a full bodied bow, (her dress is like) from the 1920's, fluffy on the bottom, but tight going up (the body), long gloves on the arms, her arms are straight out as she bows

What is your name? What is your name?

"I am Anna"

Here image becomes more flowing, blurred and almost angelic

Anna, what are your attributes here within this Aethyr?

"I am the carrier of light"

And why are you here within the darkness of Space?

"The Space is my home"

So, you are the carrier of light, but your home is the darkness of Space?

“Yes”

For why do you carry this light? Is it to pass on to another?

“No”

Please tell me, and speak clearly that I might understand you, why do you carry this light?

“I carry it so I can become more”

You say that you want to become more. I ask you, what are you now, that you want to become more?

“I am of the light”

And what do you want to become?

“I wish to improve upon my light”

What improvements can be made upon your light?

“It can shine through the moistness of night”

So you wish that your light would shine brighter, to penetrate the moistness of night?

“Yes”

What are your attributes here within this Aethyr? Do you have any additional attributes that you have not told me of?

“No”

Do you have any words of advice for me?

“No”

Are there any visions within this Aethyr that you feel would benefit me?

“Yes”

Could you please show me those visions now?

“Yes”

I see (a) mouth, there is something moving vertically from my left up to the top, and behind that was a mouth, almost that of a shark coming at me

What is your name?

“You know...”

Are you Choronzon?

“Yes”

Choronzon, I have talked to you. I have been to your Abyss, and I am apparently there now again. I have moved on from you. Why do you bring me here?

”It...” but he hesitates to talk

Choronzon, is it that you wish to devour me?

“Yes”

And again, why can you not devour me?

“You are not of the right light”

So if I am not of the right light, why do you try again to devour me?

“It is what have to become”

What do you wish to become?

“I wish to devour you”

Choronzon, obviously, I am of the wrong light to be devoured. Your continuing does not change this. Please be gone from my visions.

He kind of says “yeah...”

I saw an image of a shark going through Space, as he swam across the front of me and veered, and went away in the distance

I now see light upon the water, that (vision) was washed away to the left hand side, by a wave, the wave was going from left to right, I think it was the back wash of a wave that washed that (away)

ZIP, ZIP. ZIP, ZIP, show me your visions within this 9th Aethyr, ZIP, show me your visions!

I see a giant foot, I appear to be in Space again, it is like a giant robot (foot) walking, I see what appears to be pyramids, but it is night time so it is dark, I am seeing more darkness come on, but this is more of a shadow,

ZIP...

Something (is) coming at me, pushing at me, it is almost like a white light, I saw a figure hiding behind some type of bush or plant that is 7 feet tall, and in front of that is a fence that is 3 or 4 feet tall, <I will see if I can go around and talk to (the person)>

I go around and it (now) appears to be daylight, but I am in the shade, there are many trees that are shading (the place behind the fence), I saw a wagon full of hay drive off (driven by) horses, there is a small bridge leading into a house or small castle, as I cross the bridge, the whole image shakes, as if the vibration from a giant footstep has shaken everything,

I am now flying over water, or some mist in Space, it is dark, I try and look into the water to try and see a reflection, but the water is rippling, so there is no reflection,

ZIP..,

Again the darkness wipes the light away, it is as if the center is in front of me and it is a big fan slowing opening up darkness and pushing the light into a small wedge, I see a giant moth, above it, riding it is possibly a female with (her) wings out, very beautiful in a very gothic sort of way

What is your name? What is your name? Speak clearly that I might hear you.

“I am On-Ska-Ha”

On-Ska-Ha, what are your attributes here?

“I kill those that come here”

Very well then, what kind of being are you?

“I am an angel that has fallen”

“I will be your end”

<Her English is very broken and incomplete>

I tire of these games, You will be GONE!

“Yes” she says sharply and then leaves

ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, show me your visions

Again I see like a fish, silvery scales, swimming before me and away,

<again it could be Choronzon, I am not sure why he has tied himself to me within this Aethyr, Perhaps I will read the call of the Aethyr one more time>

I will bring myself back into my body

I am back

Call of the Aethyr – ZIP (in Enochian only)

ZIP, ZIP, ZIP, ZIP...

I am seeing landscapes, I see an image of a great wall, (there are) silver domes dotting (the top of) it along the way, I see a woman sitting, her knees bent, she has a dress jutting out at here waist, (she) almost has the stance of a fairy

What is your name?

I hear a faint “I am” and her image fades

I look down and I see water flowing down, an image of a head came out of it, that head carried upon a large beast, almost like a large triceratops, in that it had plating that came up off (the back of) its head and covered its neck, there is some white mist coming down from the sky, thick, it seems to be like an explosion of light off in the distance, at eye level, there is nothing but sky, as I dip down below the sky level, it is as if it is night (and I am) over a city and there is an explosion, there are waves of light coming out of a single spot, coming out in a circular pattern, a spherical circular pattern, and it pulses as explosions happen and moves over the city,

I see a face, actually I see a mouth first, it was like that person was looking out a window and talking, and then pulled their head back into the window, the window in (the) front (side) of the building he was in was all white, lit up, but behind it is the darkness of Space,

I see the image of rows upon rows of men, (the men) were more like stuffed doll figures, (the line of men) wound up and it curved in front of me and then kind of dissipated back into the blackness of Space,

ZIP, ZIP...

I am in Space, it is as if I am in water, there is something above me that came from (my) forward left, it is right on top of me, it is shaped like that of a skateboard or the bottom of a boat, I am now on top of the water and I see what looks like a hilt of a sword poking out (of the water) I see a figure grasping for the handle almost like he is trying to push it in, off to the right hand side is darkness, as I saw what looked like a couple of claws pull back and hide from me.

<I would say it appears that Choronzon has pulled upon me and has not allowed me to the next Aethyr, or not allowed me to entirely be in the next Aethyr. There is a lot of darkness here of the Abyss, and of course Choronzon.>

At this time, I pull myself back into my body.

<As it appears that my attempt has been less then successful, but interesting>

I am back.
