1st Key

I see two large wooden gate doors open up, upon a waterway, going through a city, the roof is arched and rounded

Can you pass through the gate?

Yeah, it comes up to a small dam with the center part letting water through, almost like a fish (ladder)

The water appears to be going faster or either I am going faster, the water goes down a smaller tunnel, oval in shape, I am (now) moving above and outside the tunnel, I am out in front of where the tunnel comes out and where it comes out it is a “T” shaped opening in the rock. (The shape is more like straight lines drawn in from the points of a triangle and connected in the middle),

There is a figure, (he is made of) white liquid water or even fire, coming out of the water and moving to my right, the water then becomes like crystal or ice, pointing upward toward where the being exited the water

I am now moving through a canyon, with steep cliffs on each side, its more as if I am under water,

Did the being just disappear?

It went to the right into the woods or the darkness there

Do you want me to go back there and find that being?

No, keep going

See if you can rise up above the water

The walls (of the ravine) have like little mushroom (growing on them)

I am above the water, it appears to be a still section of the stream, there are little mounds or something poking up on the (surface) of the water.

Are you flowing with the river or against it?

Neither, the water is fairly still, when I was under the water it was just all still

Rise above the canyon, if you can

The canyon was actually in the water so it was the edges...

O.K.

I am above the water and I see the pool I was just in, oval in shape, the water is flowing out one end, (from above it) it almost looks like a spermatozoa,

What is to your left?

There is not a lot of definition, but it is like a forested area, dark

The same in front of you?

Being above the pool of water, that's what I see around its edges (the darkened forest)

I see an image within the water, the water has changed color, somewhat like a angle with its arms up and its wings up, like the open wings of scarab beetle (as depicted in Egyptian art), like Isis

Gabriel, Gabriel, Gabriel

Any change?

When you started it changed into a head of a dog and then morphed into a skull, that I am really close up on

Is the angel being still there?

I am away from that pool.

I see an image (of a being in) the same type of posture, this time riding a horse, the arms and wings extended into the air

What color is the horse?

The horse appeared white, a beige dirty white

I saw the horse again, viewing it its right side was brilliant white, the left side, as it turned, was more of a danky silvery white

Nalvage, Nalvage, Nalvage, Nalvage

(an angle that appeared for Dee & Kelly, name means 'Avoidance of earthly things')

I see an image of a skull again but this time I was able to back away from it, it was as if somebody removed it as a mask, there is a hooded figure, the interior of the hood was dark

Zacare od Zamran <move and shew yourself>

Who art thou?

I saw a horse with a person on it, they weren't moving away or anything

Give us a sign

"I am of the East"

Do you have anything to communicate to us?

"Know to carry the sense of time within the hour of concealment"

Anything more?

"Carry on with the hour at hand until it is complete, where there is fulfillment"

"Know that it will be done as it was done"

Is he still there?

Yes, his words are a little bit garbled or he stopped talking

Exarp, Exarp, Exarp, Exarp, Exarp <spirit of air>

What do you see now?

I see something else

“Know that the way is fraught with evils or danger”

Our father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven, give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us of our trespasses as we forgive those that trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever, amen

Still the same?

I saw an image of a silhouette of a person sitting in front of a brilliant light, fiery lighted wall, and near the end of the prayer, he stood up and actually became the same fiery light and meshed in with the wall

Is the light still there?

I am (now) actually looking around, I am looking above a stream and there is a bend in it, and the light appears ahead of that (as if the light is beyond the bend in the stream), + I could go back to that scene if you like

Go to that light. Go towards the light.

I am going above the stream, around the bend in the stream, the light is..., (the stream) is bending to the right, the light is ahead of me to the right, let me see if I can get there

Keep going

I am in a small valley and there is a wall of light filling (across) the valley, but it has a flat surface facing me, shall I go into it?

Yes

I go into it, it was very... hard to describe it, strings of white floating etheric light, it is almost as if it is a dammed stream and I popped out above on top of it

I see something submerging back into it, like a darkened head of a person and then there was some watery substance that pulled him down and when he surfaced back up, he was all of the white fiery light again

It is still or is it floating upwards?

It is still, almost like a dammed river, the water is moving around almost with a life of its own

Hcoma, Hcoma, Hcoma, Hcoma, Hcoma <spirit of water>

See anything now?

I was rushing down through a tunnel, it wasn't round, more like five sided and the fiery water was rushing out ahead in front of me, at one point I stopped and the fiery water continued on, and then went up (the tunnel) into a cavern

Are you in the cavern now?

Yes, I look around and there are piled treasures of gold and crowns and stuff

Any detail in the treasure?

There is one crown upon a pedestal, it is a rather tall crown, it has a wide band (of gold) on it and coming up (from the band) about 6 to 8 inches are intricate detailed (flat spikes), around the edge of the pedestal is an orobouros,

Can you move the crown? Can you lift it up?

Let me get back to it, I am now looking at a cup, the stem of the cup is..., it is like a martini cup, it comes out at a steep angle, the stem of the cup is a female figure

I am back to the crown, I am able to pick it up, the top of the crown (above the golden band) flattens out, in an outward direction, I see someone taking the crown and setting it up on a high shelf, and once that is done, the crown folds back up to where the top parts go straight up rather than sticking out

Nanta, Nanta, Nanta, Nanta, Nanta <spirit of Earth>

Before you did that, I saw two round openings with additional treasures, or gold or silver coming out (flowing like water) when you started (saying Nanta) I saw a long scepter standing upright, it had a round handle going up about 4 or 5 feet, the top was egg shaped, I did not see much detail, at the end of that I saw a large wooden or golden cup, there was a hand holding it and (the hand) brought it over to its body, sitting in a throne, Shall I ask who it is?

Yes

Zacare od Zamran <move and shew yourself>

I asked who he was and he laughed

Do we know who you are?

“Yes” with a No drawback to it

“Yes”

Do we know who you will be?

He does not give a yes or no, but definitely does not say no

Why have you appeared to us?

He laughs again

Do you have anything to communicate?

He is saying something but it is at a low level, almost like a grumble

Speak more clearly

“Know that the Earth is my home and it is where I keep my treasure”

Can you bestow this treasure upon us?

“Yes”

How so?

“The treasure can be given but not taken”

Will you then give it to us?

“The treasure if of my own hand” almost as if of his own blood

“Yes” he will give it to us

Will he give us a sign?

“No”

Thank You

“The treasure is to be given, there is one for each of you”

Do you anything further to communicate?

“To each of you go the Thorn of Crowns”

What does his face look like now?

It changed after he said that, the walls are more gray with more openings in it, more like a grayish bone-like structure to it

I am now back in a tunnel that is round, ahead of me is another bright light, there is a small stream flowing from down the tunnel at me

Bitom, Bitom, Bitom, Bitom, Bitom <spirit of fire>

I saw a bright glowing globe of light, of a fiery light moving around, then it expanded into a whirlpool of the same white light, but the globe was definitely something sitting within it, spinning around it, it is spinning faster and the whirlpool seemed to expand

Speak to the whirlpool

Who art thou?

“I am the mother of thought”

I had images of a large opening, kind of like the whirlpool, with large carriages or trains coming out, no real detail to those, just darkened images,

Have you anything to communicate to us?

“Man knows no limits in thought”

“Many are the men that carry the thought to completion”

“The thoughts of many are greater than the thoughts of one”

“Think”

and she stops talking

I see a large whirlpool with an opening, I can see into it and there was an oval shape of the white fiery light, I then backed away from it and the fiery opening or the fiery light became an eye on a face, I can see the eyelid close over it

Is the eye open or closed now?

It is a darkened face that moved off into the distance with the eyelid closed

Zacare od Zamran <move and shew yourself>

I am in Space

Are there stars or is it just dark?

There are stars, there is a pathway in front of me going out and that has led to a city, floating on an asteroid, with a city built up on it

Looking at the buildings, the city now has sunlight, there are shadows from trees and stuff on the building

Are there any inhabitants?

Not in the city, looking up the sky is bright. white shining light

I see a fountain, I see a bench on the right side with stuff set up on it like a street vendor

What kind of stuff?

There now what appears to be large feathers covering the stuff, it could be large leaves, I saw the edge of a large pot, large copper pot or something,

I am now back out in space, almost as if I was ejected from the city

Are any of the stars brighter than the others?

There doesn't appear to be, but off to my right appears as if the stars have moved and formed the constellation of a horse, then I see a horse right in front of me, the horse is dark or black in color

Who art thou?

Is the horse still there?

”I am the night thou <that> is the sky”

Why have you come to us?

“I bring the night to you”

Do you have anything for us?

“The night is what I bring”

“The night covers the darkness with life”

“The night is the sky that bears the lights” or light

Has anyone ever ridden you?

“Yes”

Who?

“It is of the East” or Eastern

Are you headed to or from the East?

“I travel toward the East”

“The East of time”

How is time important to us?

It is getting a little hard to hear his words

Speak more clearly

“Time is the teller of what is to come”

“Time contributes to the end of things”

“Time is what is known”

“Time is the ruler of man”

Where shall we go?

”Head to the West to find the light”

See if you can turn around and go in the opposite direction

I see a brilliant white light coming at me, on closer inspection it’s like a lotus that is all lit up

Can you go to its center?

The petals open up, there is a beam of light coming out of it, I go to its center, it is like the Earth but its not lit up with bright light, but as if it is overcast sky, possible a sun setting,

Can you descend upon it?

I am looking at a pathway the is lit up but I keep getting pulled off to the left, there is nothing but darkness off to the left

Try and stay on the path

It just moved far to the right side, let me get back there

O.K., I am back, and it just pushed away from me again, this time in front of me, it was as if a blackness rolled upon the path, I will try again

The path leads up to a castle with a draw bridge, the doorway..., the ground is cobble stone, the light seems to be like water and it is flowing ahead of me in the opposite direction or flowing away from me, as I move into a courtyard, it moves into a room within the castle

See if you can go in that room

I am in the room and it is rather ornate, ornate carpet with interlocking designs on it, I see a mirror, like a round mirror, that is reflecting the light

Stare into the mirror

It changed shape and the outer edges are intricate gold work and the inside (became) a diamond shaped section you could look into and it actually blinked, as if I was looking into an eye

Who art thou?

“I am he that sees”

Sees what?

“I see those that look in me”

And what do those that look into you see?

“They see the image that man has set upon himself”

“They see the reflection of their soul”

What needs we to do to see more?

“Look and you shall see”

I am back to the mirror, I see an image of an eye, the eye was all light up, it was round and bright, then it folded in upon itself, collapsing in upon itself, it has a pulling effect
Should we go in?

Yes

I am traveling through a tunnel, it is square, the ground and walls are not solid, there are brief instances of light shimmering on the walls and ground to give it definition and form, I see a figure of a man, like a knight in armor

Who art thou?

There is no answer

Is he still there though?

He has faded into the wall

I am traveling again through the square tunnel, I was looking at something that turned into an eye again, it is as if a person or something is opening up its eye and I see it, and as it closes its eye, it winks out (of perception) back into the darkness, almost as if they are simply watching

Why are you watching us?

They don't say anything but they kind of just smile

Do you know why we are watching you?

“You are not the watchers”

Yet we watch

“You only see but do not watch”

Who are the watchers?

“The watchers are...” and he stops talking

“The watchers are of the ages or Aeons”

Have the watchers have anything to communicate to us?

“Yes”

What?

“Know that the speck of time is but a lie”

Then what is the Truth?

They just smile again

Have you anything to teach us?

“No”

“We are the watchers and that is all”

Are you the watchers spoken of in the books of Enoch?

He doesn't really say yes but kind of gives a big smile, as indicating yes

Is there anything more for us to see here?

“No”

Should we return?

He doesn't give a yes or no answer, like it doesn't matter if we return or not

Let's go back
