Conjuration of Pathier

Incense: ?

Scryer is shown what appears to be a starfish wearing a black robe with both arms outstretched. His skin may be yellow or orange under the robe.

Art thou PATHIER?

Shape appears more man shaped, within the black robe, and has green eyes.

Smoke appears to be hovering around the figure with a red glow coming from behind him.

Art thou PATHIER?

He stands up and nods yes. Smoke flows up from his head

We are all wearing the Pentacle of King Solomon. You are bound to answer all questions put to ye.

no answer

What do you see [Scryer]?

There is a blue-ish blob in the mist. A man walking out of it. His hair is brown. He stands with a staff wearing only pants (no shirt)

Oh Duke Pathier...we greet you.

He bows in greeting

We would like to know the order of your nature.

His Staff whirls above his head in the mist.

Scryer sees into a droplet of mist and sees a bird flying through a forest.

“We are of the Bornless Ones”

“We are like the Night and the Day”

“We move in the air”

“We are of Fire, Earth, Water, and Air.”

All at once?

Pathier shakes his head “No” and puts his head in his hands.

“Look at this”

Scryer is shown the particles within the mist

What are the properties of the mist in the air?

Pathier grasps a bubble [droplet] and the Scryer’s attention is drawn into it. (It appears to enlarge)

Scryer sees the scene with the bird in it (as before)

Each droplet the Scryer is shown contains a different scene.

Pathier uses his free hand to whirl the staff into the green mist.

A droplet went by the Scryer and it had a scene of a deer in it.

[Are you] A spirit of the Natural World rather than on of the Physical World?

“Yes”

Fires comes down into the top of his staff as the mist continues to swirl.

Scryer is shown different earth landscapes within each droplet he sees.

Pathier changes shape and now has furry legs, hooves, and (real) horns. (like a Satyr)

He then jumps around (more like an animal than a human)

He then stands up.

“We are of the elements and we can move them”

To change form?

“[We move the elements] like a conduit, like blood vessels, veins of the Earth”

Scryer sees within a droplet and sees the Earth exploding.

Solomon says that [you and your kind are capable of affecting] all things to be accomplished.

Pathier nods “Yes” and puts in arms in the sign of

The mist now becomes a “V” shape above him and collapses into a tiny ball of light.

He shows it around the room and says.

“We shine our knowledge on one [person] and take what we want.”

Scryer sees a cave with a treasure chest. Pathier is there taking a ball [of light] from the chest.

Scryer then sees a King giving money to Pathier [for protection]. Pathier then is in a forested area and collapses the “V” shaped mist into a [ball of] light. The light then bounces away and hits an approaching army of people. The people attack the King and are defeated by the King. The King then takes [the people’s] treasure and is happy.

“We animate men”

Scryer has the sensation that his hands are extremely large.

Scryer sees image of a man being struck by the lightning [from the collapsed mist] and then the man begins to run around. [becomes active]

Like Inspiration?

“Yes” (more like to do something, like going to the store, not like building pyramids)

Scryer feels like his giants hands are covering the entire world (with power)

Are you able to ascertain the future?

Pathier shakes his head “No” and stomps his feet.

Scryer is taken back to the scene of the King in his castle.

He sees that the King does not exist in time.

The Scryer sees Pathier walking around in the modern world (in a city). (Pathier appears unhappy)

Scryer indicates that Pathier lives outside of time

[Do all (Thurgia Goetia) spirits] have domain of the Natural World [like you]?

Scryer is shown an image of the [10] of swords tarot card

Scryer sees spirits coming from forest and (spirit of) mer-people coming from the ocean.

"Some are literally fiery, others of air"

"Some are like electrons and atoms."

"Some more closer [to electricity] than that."

"[Some] may bear more [of an effect] on your world because of the electricity that you use."

Is there a [better] method to improve upon the evocation?

Is the method we used adequate?

Scryer is shown people doing a shamanic dance around an altar.

Scryer indicates that he would prefer a more animalist method.

Does this apply to all the spirits under Usiel?

"Yes"

Some more [about the spirits that are like] electrons. What directions do these spirits come from?

Scryer sees powerlines coming from the Earth to the Sun.

Scryer indicates [by pointing] South East and then South (more toward the South)

Scryer indicates that the band is (pie) wedge shape, about 1/8th of the circle.

Scryer sees Pathier digging into the Earth to the center.

Lava and gold shoot out of the hole in the ground and then Pathier comes out as well.

Pathier indicates that he is good at mining and taking (you places).

What kind of places?

"All Over"

Scryer sees a crow flying, then a hawk, then a magick carpet.

And if I want to go to Japan?

"Yes"

Scryer is shown a European city with Sor. C. walking through it. Pathier is above on a cloud.

You can make it happen in the real world?

"You have to take a plane."

You are able to manifest what is required [for me] to be on the plane?

Pathier takes his staff and uses it to animate the plane.

The staff sets off a chain of actions showing people handing (you) money.

He [Pathier] will set up a chain of reactions for where you want to go.

How can we [assist] you in helping ourselves to go places?

Scryer sees Pathier with money in front of him.

He then begins to roll in it.

Scryer then sees a "house" in a tree.

Scryer indicates that if you do things in your world, he will do things in his.

(What does the house look like?)

Scryer indicate that the house is Stele' in shape and that it is carved into a tree.

And that there is to be vases and flowers around it.

That there should also be people dancing a pic-nicking around the house.

Scryer indicates that people should hang out and pic-nic there.

What is in the Stele' shaped house [What does it look like]

Scryer sees the Stele' of Revealing carved into a tree.

[Why the Stele' of Revealing?]

Scryer indicates doing that changes things in his world and brings us [people and Pathier] closer together. [creates a link]

After the Stele' is carved, we will be able to communicate better with him.

Scryer is shown Pathier making the sign of the enterer in front of the [Stele' carved] tree.

Pathier likes [there to be] flute music and dancing [in front of tree]

[This would be able to allow us to] move "gold" back and forth.

Pathier wants his seal put above the Stele' on the tree.

You want your seal carved [above the Stele']?

Scryer indicates a yellow light showing from the seal. It should be carved (lightly) and painted yellow.

"You must buy tickets and Do things."

According to Solomon...you are adept at finding lost items? [I have had taken] my Magickal Diary, in fact the last two.

Can you help [locate] these?

Scryer sees Pathier holding a thicker book. He runs off into the distance. He is then scene inspiring several guys in a van (both with long hair)

He could do it, but it would take a long time.

Yes, he would love to do it, but particularly physical objects, he cannot carry.

Fluid things like money [are easy to influence]

Physical things are harder [because] he has to go to each physical point of contact to move it on.

Yeah, he can do it, but it is not easy [for him]

“The condition of the notebook will be battered when it arrives.”

Scryer is shown the Earth with [two people at different points on the Earth] The Scryer then sees the book being sucked down into the Earth [from the first person] and coming back up by Fra. I.

[It’s path is “L” shaped as it travels through the Earth]

There appears also magma shooting up from where the book came out of the Earth.

Scryer indicates that maybe the book came from Japan?

Please speak plainly.... so that our Scryer can understand you.

“I can go to Japan and get what you want”

Scryer indicates it would be a new notebook.

It is the content of the book that are important, the condition is un-important.

Can Pathier direct us to the location of the books?

[Pathier seems impatient]

Let’s move on.

How can I manifest my True Will in the world?

Scryer indicates that Pathier is again creating lightening [from his staff] and that Pathier has started a chain of events that will [assist Fra. I.] to do his True Will.

Scryer now sees [Pathier send out] another lightening bolt and then sees Fra. I. with money in his hands.

Pathier indicates that he will be able to better assist after the Stele’ has been carved into a tree.

What sort of Tree should the Stele’ be carved into?

Scryer indicates that it should be a particular area. [The tree] should not be evergreen. It should be wide (and round) with no moss on it. It should be a thin barked tree with lots of flowing sap. (a healthy tree)

The tree should be in the East when carving upon it.

Next to a river is good.

[It is good] in [an area with a] diversity of Nature. It should be an aesthetic blend of nature.

“Please pick up any garbage.”

Could you assist in putting money into Fra. A.’s or Sor. C.’s hand to go to the Czech Republic?

Pathier shoots money into Fra. A.’s hands.

Sor. C. is shown [walking around] in the Czech Republic.

Can you assist in increasing funds? [for Fra. D.]

“Yeah”

Scryer sees Fra. D. with a medium pile of money.

Pathier is then seen shoveling through concrete. There is a small pile of Gold next to him. He is working hard and sweaty. He then pulls a single gold coin out of the ground and hands it to [Fra. D.].

“You will know what to do with it”

The small pile of gold on the ground then becomes big.

[Assistance for A.?)

Scryer sees a lightening bolt shoot through A.’s body leaving his shirt smokey. Pathier wipes off the smoke.

“Sorry, had to do that.”

[Money then appears before A.]

[Fra. T. then inquires about himself]

Pathier dumps a pile [of green money] at Fra. T.’s feet unceremoniously. There is a single green marble in the pile. Fra. T. picks it up and holds it in his hand.

“When you know how to use it, you will.”

[Addressing everyone] “The piles of money/gold are not real money. More like [representing] houses, flowers, and cars. [I] am good at finding valuable things in our [physical] world that we can turn into money.”

Pathier hands each of us a green bill [money]

“[You] have to do your own method of skills to extract [our own] green dollars.”

Scryer is shown Fra. A. extracting money.

“[You] will know it when you see it”

“Yeah”

Scryer indicates that it has become hard to communicate with Pathier.

Pathier, please speak plainly so our Scryer can understand.

Scryer indicates that Pathier has trouble with [speaking] words.

“I am an animal.”

Pathier turns into a bear.

“You have to see opportunities and make money out of [them]

Scryer sees an image of Fra. A. with a pile of gold. SOR.C. is shown walking around a Praugue like [city] place. The piles of money are mostly on Fra. A. left side.

Scryer then sees an airplane that drops [a package with a parachute] like a food drop package. [It lands on the ground.] It has a 1960's style space suit in it. Fra. A. [grabs the helmet and] wears the helmet into a plane that is heading to the Czech Republic. [The piles of Fra. A.'s] money stays here. As Fra. A. walks around in the Czech Republic, money comes out of the soles of his shoes.

[Can you assist in] Information Technologies?

Pathier indicates that he is not into Information Technologies.

Please assist me in finding a book called the Picatrix written in the Latin text by [the author]

Help me find the person [that has it and have them] sell it at a reasonable price and [make] it so that I will know who they are.

Pathier sends a lightening bolt into the chest a the guy who has the book. The guy is walking a long ways away.

"You can find the guy online"

Scryer indicates that Fra. I. has to look for it himself.

Please set in motion a chain of events that will lead to success in my wife's business.

Pathier threw up his arms [and a green ball flew into the air]. Confetti falls [from the green ball]

Scryer sees an image of Fra. D. and his wife holding a present wrapped in shiny wrapping paper.

The present is a jack-in-the-box.

Scryer indicates that this is a joke [from Pathier]

"I will do that." [assist in wife's business]

Scryer indicates that Pathier is more powerful with business [related] stuff.

It is easier to set up chain of events for businesses.

Pathier likes small things. [He likes to effect multiple small events that will lead to bigger things]

Can you assist me in selling my T-shirts?

Scryer sees himself putting shirts on a rack and then handing them out to people.

Pathier indicates that Fra. T. should put them on the internet to sell quickly.

"Save one for yourself, it's a good shirt!"

Pathier sends a lightening bolt out [to aid Fra. T.]

Gold did not appear [before Fra. T.] but green money appeared [instead] in his hands.

Scryer indicates that the money is only a metaphor.

[Fra. I. request that Pathier] help his father's business.

"What type of business if your father in? is it dealing with wood and people?"

Wood and Land

Scryer sees people coming to land and building houses.

"Yes" [I can help you]

Scryer sees a field full of people and the people turn into houses.

A man [who is Fra. I.'s father] sit's on a bench with wood behind him.

Scryer then sees Pathier whispering in peoples ears.

"That is how I can help him."

Can you assist my employer in facilitating a move and to [better take care of his employee's, finacially]

Scryer sees Pathier whispering into peoples ears to give them ideas. The ideas become drawings.

Thanks [for your efforts]
